

Mattighofen, November 19th 2010

THE KTM X-BOW BATTLE ON TV FOR THE FIRST TIME: AUSTRIAN TV BROADCASTS ROUNDUP OF ADRIA RACES!

What a great occasion it was for the KTM X-BOW BATTLE to be part of the DTM at the Adria International Raceway! Thirty starters offered spectacular but always fair motorsport and thus delivered a fantastic show, not only to the many fans at the event, but also to those responsible for the German Touring Car Masters.

The drivers, but also organizer Georg Silbermayr and his staff and the KTM company were “rewarded” with an invitation to make another appearance at the DTM in 2011. Another “reward” follows on Sunday. The motorsports Magazine “DRIVE” on ORF, Austria’s state-run television, is broadcasting a feature on the race weekend at the Adria International Raceway!

Georg Silbermayr: “We would again like to thank those responsible from DMSB, ITR and DTM. It was a great experience and every single participant is already looking forward to next year. We also have to say a big thank you to ORF who have made the broadcast of this roundup possible. This offers us the opportunity to present ourselves to a broad public audience interested in motorsports.”

Again a reminder of the time of the broadcast for all KTM X-BOW fans:

Sunday, 21.11.2010: ORF 1, “Drive”, starts at 12:00 noon